

Announcements:

1. Welcome & thank you for joining our Holy Communion Service. Please join our breakout room and/or fellowship after service.
2. Zoom and live stream worship service will be available until further notice. The children's Sunday school only available on Zoom at 9 AM.
3. Please join us in partnering with Samaritan's Purse Operation Christmas Child to bring cheer to 200 boys and girls around the world by letting them know that God loves them and has not forgotten them during this continuing Covid pandemic. We thank those who have signed up and registered to participate in our FEC Operation Christmas Child event. Please bring your monetary donations, toys and cloth items to church on or before November 14. This will help us organize and prepare better prior to our November 19 packing party at church from 6-8pm. There is still time register: Go to FEC website for the registration details. Also if you are packing your own at home, boxes are available for pick-up at the church office.
4. FEC's Annual Membership Meeting will take place on Dec. 5th at 11:30 AM. English Service and one combined Chinese Service will be @ 10 AM; details of AGM meeting to follow next week.
5. Giving through e-transfer or other means of giving previously prescribed remains a viable option for you to give, however, if you would like to bring the offering and physically give it during the offering time by placing it in the basket that ushers will be holding at the front of the pews will be another option available for you beginning next week.

Notes from Sunday Message:

November 7th 2021

"True Christian Freedom"
1 Corinthians 8

1 Now about food sacrificed to idols: We know that "We all possess knowledge." But knowledge puffs up while love builds up. 2 Those who think they know something do not yet know as they ought to know. 3 But whoever loves God is known by God. 4 So then, about eating food sacrificed to idols: We know that "An idol is nothing at all in the world" and that "There is no God but one." 5 For even if there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth (as indeed there are many "gods" and many "lords"), 6 yet for us there is but one God, the Father, from whom all things came and for whom we live; and there is but one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom all things came and through whom we live. 7 But not everyone possesses this knowledge. Some people are still so accustomed to idols that when they eat sacrificial food they think of it as having been sacrificed to a god, and since their conscience is weak, it is defiled. 8 But food does not bring us near to God; we are no worse if we do not eat, and no better if we do. 9 Be careful, however, that the exercise of your rights does not become a stumbling block to the weak. 10 For if someone with a weak conscience sees you, with all your knowledge, eating in an idol's temple, won't that person be emboldened to eat what is sacrificed to idols? 11 So this weak brother or sister, for whom Christ died, is destroyed by your knowledge. 12 When you sin against them in this way and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Christ. 13 Therefore, if what I eat causes my brother or sister to fall into sin, I will never eat meat again, so that I will not cause them to fall.
