"Faithful in the Littlest"

Luke 19:11-27

11 While they were listening to this, he went on to tell them a parable, because he was near Jerusalem and the people thought that the kingdom of God was going to appear at once. 12 He said: "A man of noble birth went to a distant country to have himself appointed king and then to return. 13 So he called ten of his servants and gave them ten minas. 'Put this money to work,' he said, 'until I come back.' 14 "But his subjects hated him and sent a delegation after him to say, 'We don't want this man to be our king.' 15 "He was made king, however, and returned home. Then he sent for the servants to whom he had given the money, in order to find out what they had gained with it. 16 "The first one came and said, 'Sir, your mina has earned ten more.' 17 "'Well done, my good servant!' his master replied. 'Because you have been trustworthy in a very small matter, take charge of ten cities.' 18 "The second came and said, 'Sir, your mina has earned five more.' 19 "His master answered, 'You take charge of five cities.' 20 "Then another servant came and said, 'Sir, here is your mina; I have kept it laid away in a piece of cloth. 21 I was afraid of you, because you are a hard man. You take out what you did not put in and reap what you did not sow.' 22 "His master replied, 'I will judge you by your own words, you wicked servant! You knew, did you, that I am a hard man, taking out what I did not put in, and reaping what I did not sow? 23 Why then didn't you put my money on deposit, so that when I came back, I could have collected it with interest?' 24 "Then he said to those standing by, 'Take his mina away from him and give it to the one who has ten minas.' 25 "'Sir,' they said, 'he already has ten!'" 26 "He replied, 'I tell you that to everyone who has, more will be given, but as for the one who has nothing, even what they have will be taken away. 27 But those enemies of mine who did not want me to be king over them—bring them here and kill them in front of me.'"

Great Expectation
By: Reginald Smith
Scripture: Luke 19:11-27

"Put this money to work,' he said, 'until I come back.'"
Luke 19:13 —

In the days before World War II, German theologian Helmut Thielicke wanted the kingdom of Adolf Hitler to fall quickly. He trusted Jesus would bring in a new era of freedom if the German people read the Word and prayed earnestly for him to come. He publicized a Bible study and waited for crowds to fill up the church. God gave him two old women and a much older organist. Thielicke did not think he could take on the German military machine with a nursing home army. Thielicke did not want the crew Jesus provided.

Jesus tells a parable about using the resources God has given us. A king goes away for a time, and he gives his servants money to use wisely while he is gone. Those servants include you and me as we wait for Christ's return.

What is he expecting from us while he is away?

First, that we not sit on our gifts but use them to expand the kingdom.

We've been given treasures of blessings, not to hoard for ourselves but to bless others.

Second, that we prepare a report on our use of the king's gifts. There are no exceptions, only expectations.

Third, that we not be lazy out of fear. One servant was judged "wicked" for playing life too safe.

King Jesus expects us to bless and extend the kingdom he is building through us. He expects us to put our gifts to work until he comes back. Let's get to work!

Prayer

Dear Lord, help me to think creatively in using my gifts to please you. Help us all to get to work. By your Spirit, may we be faithful servants. In your name we pray. Amen.
