"A Heart of Honour in Chaotic Times"

1 Samuel 1:1-20

1 There was a certain man from Ramathaim, a Zuphite from the hill country of Ephraim, whose name was Elkanah son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite. 2 He had two wives; one was called Hannah and the other Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had none. 3 Year after year this man went up from his town to worship and sacrifice to the Lord Almighty at Shiloh, where Hophni and Phinehas, the two sons of Eli, were priests of the Lord. 4 Whenever the day came for Elkanah to sacrifice, he would give portions of the meat to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and daughters. 5 But to Hannah he gave a double portion because he loved her, and the Lord had closed her womb. 6 Because the Lord had closed Hannah's womb, her rival kept provoking her in order to irritate her. 7 This went on year after year. Whenever Hannah went up to the house of the Lord, her rival provoked her till she wept and would not eat. 8 Her husband Elkanah would say to her, "Hannah, why are you weeping? Why don't you eat? Why are you downhearted? Don't I mean more to you than ten sons?" 9 Once when they had finished eating and drinking in Shiloh, Hannah stood up. Now Eli the priest was sitting on his chair by the doorpost of the Lord's house. 10 In her deep anguish Hannah prayed to the Lord, weeping bitterly. 11 And she made a vow, saying, "Lord Almighty, if you will only look on your servant's misery and remember me, and not forget your servant but give her a son, then I will give him to the Lord for all the days of his life, and no razor will ever be used on his head."

12 As she kept on praying to the Lord, Eli observed her mouth. 13 Hannah was praying in her heart, and her lips were moving but her voice was not heard. Eli thought she was drunk 14 and said to her, "How long are you going to stay drunk? Put away your wine." 15 "Not so, my lord," Hannah replied, "I am a woman who is deeply troubled. I have not been drinking wine or beer; I was pouring out my soul to the Lord. 16 Do not take your servant for a wicked woman; I have been praying here out of my great anguish and grief." 17 Eli answered, "Go in peace, and may the God of Israel grant you what you have asked of him." 18 She said, "May your servant find favor in your eyes." Then she went her way and ate something, and her face was no longer downcast. 19 Early the next morning they arose and worshiped before the Lord and then went back to their home at Ramah. Elkanah made love to his wife Hannah, and the Lord remembered her. 20 So in the course of time Hannah became pregnant and gave birth to a son. She named him Samuel, saying, "Because I asked the Lord for him."

God is still at work

By: Mark Stephenson

Scripture: 1 Samuel 1:1-20

Elkanah ... had two wives ... Peninnah had children, but Hannah had none. 1 Samuel 1:1-2 —

In the days of Elkanah, Peninnah, and Hannah, polygamy was acceptable. Also in those days a woman's worth was measured mainly by how many sons she had. As the years crawled by and Hannah remained infertile, her sorrow grew. But her pain made fertile soil for spiritual growth. She prayed fervently. Many people find that their deepest trials draw them closer to God. Hannah learned that God is the one to whom all people and all things belong. One day Hannah was praying so intensely that when a man of God, Eli, saw her, he thought she was drunk. He ordered her to get rid of her wine. But she had not been drinking. She said to him, "I was pouring out my soul to the Lord... I have been praying here out of my great anguish and grief." Then Eli encouraged her and said, "Go in peace." "In the course of time" little Samuel was born to Hannah and Elkanah. Because Samuel was a gift of God, Hannah dedicated him to the service of the Lord. He became one of the most faithful leaders of God's people. Infertility still cuts deep into the lives of many couples. This story does not promise that all infertile couples will have children. It does reassure us that those who stay close to the heart of God in their pain will see God work things out for his good purpose.

Prayer

Lord and Giver of life, be near to all who long for something and still in wait. Give them your peace, and help us all to trust that in all things you work for our good. Amen.
