

Announcements:

1. Welcome & thank you for joining to our Sunday Worship Service. We would like to thank Professor Linda Tue for sharing God's word with us today. Please join our breakout room and/or fellowship after the service.
2. Following the guideline of the Provincial Health Officer our church has resumed our full operation and we want to encourage all the small groups, fellowships, and other church meetings to take place in our church facility if possible. Mask requirement and all health protocol are still in place for the safety of our members. Refreshment after worship service shall resume next Sunday.
3. Next Sunday, we celebrate Holy Communion during our worship service. Let us prepare our hearts to come before the Lord's Table.
4. Join us on Wednesday as we come together to pray for one another and our church, 8 PM via ZOOM. Please contact Pastor Sandy for the Link. If you have prayer requests for the prayer meeting, please email to sandy.hung333@gmail.com
5. This Easter Sunday (April 17th), if you desire to publicly declare your faith in Jesus Christ through baptism or public profession of faith; or would like to transfer your membership to this church from your former church please contact our Pastors or Elders by today.
6. 2021 Offering Receipt has been mailed out last week. You should receive them by the end of this week. If you have any other concerns, please contact Michael at feccount@gmail.com.
7. Praise God from whom all blessings flow! FEC received a donation via philanthropic programme of a company amounting to $5,000 from one of our member.
8. We will be having an Online Zoom Farewell Celebration for the Chun Family this afternoon, February 27 at 2pm – 330pm, to show our appreciation for their 3 years of service in our church. To join via Zoom: Meeting ID 7083221385 Passcode: 781285

Notes from Sunday Message:

February 27th 2022

"From ordinary to Extraordinary"
Acts 2:42-47

42 They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. 43 Everyone was filled with awe at the many wonders and signs performed by the apostles. 44 All the believers were together and had everything in common. 45 They sold property and possessions to give to anyone who had need. 46 Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, 47 praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.

Notes:

Farewell
By: Peter Borgdorff
Scripture: Ephesians 6:21-24

Grace to all who love our Lord Jesus Christ with an undying love. Ephesians 6:24 —

Greetings of hello and goodbye are expressions of -civility in conversation. But our words can often become ordinary. An impersonal greeting can simply be a way of acknowledging another's presence as you walk by. Expressions that offer a blessing are more meaningful and powerful. Paul began his letter to the Ephesians with "Grace and peace to you ..." and he ends it with "Grace to all who love ..." So Paul doesn't just sign his letter. He brackets it with prayers for grace. Paul desires that the church members in Ephesus experience the reality of God's grace in their lives. There is a lesson in this for all of us. To wish someone well is more thoughtful when it is for something substantial and meaningful. Only people who know the depths of God's grace in their own lives can meaningfully wish it for someone else. It is a wish to acknowledge that God is sovereign and never absent from us. Having God's grace-filled presence does not mean that we will be perfect in our conduct or that everything will always go our way. But it does mean that we come to realize "that in all things God works for the good of those who love him" (Romans 8:28) so that we can focus on loving "our Lord Jesus Christ with an undying love." All of us are encouraged to live life in that awareness. Grace and peace to all of you!

Prayer
Thank you, dear Lord, for your grace-filled presence in the lives of all who follow your Son, Jesus Christ. Empower us by your Holy Spirit. In Christ name we pray. Amen.
