1 Therefore, rid yourselves of all malice and all deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and slander of every kind. 2 Like newborn babies, crave pure spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow up in your salvation, 3 now that you have tasted that the Lord is good. 4 As you come to him, the living Stone—rejected by humans but chosen by God and precious to him— 5 you also, like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. 6 For in Scripture it says: "See, I lay a stone in Zion, a chosen and precious cornerstone, and the one who trusts in him will never be put to shame." 7 Now to you who believe, this stone is precious. But to those who do not believe, "The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone," 8 and, "A stone that causes people to stumble and a rock that makes them fall." They stumble because they disobey the message—which is also what they were destined for. 9 But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's special possession, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. 10 Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

Easter

By: Jerry Hoytema

Scripture: Matthew 28:1-7

"He is not here; he has risen, just as he said."- Matthew 28:6

Early on Easter morning, just before sunrise, some of the same women who had stood weeping at the cross made their way through the narrow streets of Jerusalem to the garden where Jesus had been buried. Their eyes were heavy with tears. Their whole world had come to an abrupt halt. Their dreams had been shattered. The one on whom they had placed their hope was dead. They had seen it with their own eyes. They had witnessed his crucifixion. The jeers of the people who had told Jesus to come off the cross and save himself were still ringing in their ears. Jesus' friends had not understood his cry: "It is finished!" All they knew was that their beloved Master and Teacher was dead.

The women were going now to embalm the body of their Lord. They wondered how they would remove the large stone at the tomb's entrance. But as they got closer to the grave, one miracle followed another. They found the stone rolled away and an angel sitting on top of it. Why was the stone rolled away?

As scholars have noted, it was not to let Jesus out, but to show everyone else that he was no longer inside.

He has risen! And that makes all the difference in the world. In a world with so many cemeteries, where death always seems to have the last word, Jesus has conquered death. Knowing that changes everything.

On this Easter morning, Lord, remind all who have lost loved ones that there is life in the midst of death. Thank you that death does not have the last word for all who love you. Amen.
